While the inside of your closet or locker door is a fine enough place for this gem of a flyer, you know it deserves better.

Think of all the coffee shop bulletin boards, phone poles, and bus stops of the world. Think about how crappy everyone else's flyers are, and how much better they'd look once you stuck this Baddest of the Bands flyer up over the top of them.

If you do happen to stick the flyer up in an interesting place, make sure to send us a picture of your handiwork to sightings@telltalegames.com. We love that kind of thing.

Don't do anything illegal or really stupid, though.
